

Figure: 26 TAC §745.5001(b)

Voluntary Actions	Description of Voluntary Action
(1) Withdrawal of Application	(A) You withdraw your application before we decide whether to issue or deny you a permit. (B) If you withdraw your application, you may reapply for a permit later, unless you are ineligible to reapply because we have taken an enforcement action as provided in §745.5003 of this division (relating to How does my taking a voluntary action affect Licensing's ability to impose an enforcement action against my operation?).
(2) Temporary Relocation	You relocate your operation for a period of up to 90 days due to renovation or damage to the operation that makes it temporarily unsuitable for child care. After 90 days you must request that Licensing amend the permit with a new address.
(3) Voluntary Suspension	You request to suspend your permit for a: (A) Specific reason in §745.5151 of this subchapter (relating to For what reasons may I request a voluntary suspension of my permit?); and (B) Specific period, up to a maximum of two years.
(4) Voluntary Closure	You choose to close your operation after we have issued you a permit.