Types of Enforcement Actions	Description
(1) Voluntary and Corrective Actions	These actions address your deficiency without requiring you to close. Listed family homes are not subject to voluntary or corrective actions. See also see Division 2 of this subchapter (relating to Voluntary and Corrective Actions).
(2) Adverse Actions	These actions address your deficiency and may require you to close or add permanent restrictions or conditions to your permit. See also Division 3 of this subchapter (relating to Adverse Actions).
(3) Judicial Actions	A court may impose these actions, including closure, when we request a court order to address your deficiency. See also Division 4 of this subchapter (relating to Judicial Actions).
(4) Monetary Actions	These actions are fines or penalties that we may impose as provided by the Human Resources Code, §42.075 and §42.078. See also Division 5 of this subchapter (relating to Monetary Actions).
